An the statements herefore prinshed regarding the trial of Jeil. Davis, have been mere surmises, as the foverment has not authorized them nor has it made public any intimation of what it intends doing. It is semi-officially amounted that the foverment will ask for intheir delay when the tial comes on in November, and that the counsel for the necuest will then make a motion for a noile prosequit. Judge Underwood will be present, but it is not yet settled whether Judge Chase will proside. The motion to quash will be argued and declade, probably during the early part of the term. It is due to Actorney General Stanbery to say that aithough he has been consulted regarding the matter, and may have advised the prospective delay, be cannot be held accountably for the manner in which the case is conducted. He complied with District Attorney Chambler's request tor assistance in prosecuting the trial by employing Hon W. M. Chambler is alone responsible.

iriet Attorney Chandler's request for assistance in prosecuting the trial by employing Hon W.M. Evaris as assistant counsel, consequently Mr. Chandler is alone responsible.

During a recent interview with an old Tennessee friend, the purport of which has been stated publicly, Mr. Johnson stated he could take his final stand against Congress by resisting its light, it it assumed to subpend him during the progress of the impeacement trial. But he incombite that the first opportunity allouded the President to take a stand against Congress on this subject will be to veto a bill providing for the suspension from office of all public officers who may have been impeached until they have been thed, which will undoubtedly be introduced and passed early in the session.

The Croton National Bank was closed by the Government examiner this morning under section forty-sixth of the Banking Law, it having talled to radeem his circulating notes in havinimoney on demand. A receiver will probably be appointed to morrow. The capital of the bank was $200,000, a considerable part of which appears to have been lost. The circulation is $150,000, which, of course, is accurred and will be redeemed at the Treasury with the bonds placed at Washington. The deposits amount to some $200,000, one-third from country cellors, and probably all will be paid eventually. The bank has no Wall street deposits and its failure has searcely produced any cleet.

Pertsburgh, Sept 28, 1807. I did not visit Pittsburgh with pencil and note book, and with eyes and care intent on passing objects and events in quest of an editorial topic or a paragraph of news, and when I took up the HERALD in this place and read that I was "set down" for a letter on the State Fair in progress at the Iron City, I was illy prepared to "fill the bill." But the subject is not of such magnitude nor in terest to detain one long. The State Fair, in fact, as by no means, a creditable display, but unworthy of Pennsylvania, her reputation, her resources, a State which contains nearly ten millions of acres of cultivated land and nearly two hundred thousand farms, whose river valleys when courses oil in a cylinder between the axies are as rich and homitful in their production of when courses oil in a cylinder between the axies wheat, Indian corn, &c., as the prairies of the tember, 1855, and most of our readers are limit. West, and whose orehards and dairies and gard lar with it. It is oil-tight and fire-proof, and indens are no less calcidrated than her mines of fron, coal and oil. To call the late State Far au agricultural exhibition of this State would be a misnomer. Of the sixty-four counties in Pennsylvania, it would probably be a literal estimate to say there were a dozen of them represented, even assigning a local habitation within our borders to the "side shows," which were, perhaps, the most attractive features of the Fair to a stranger within the eaclosure. It would better descrive the title of an Allegheny County Fair, and that not of its farms, but of its workshops and factories to a limited extent. Or to describe the Fair mere strictly, it was more of a display of shop goods and merchants' wares, then of the machinery or manufactures of Phtsburgh. There must be something objectionable in the manage mt or defective in the system upon which our State Fairs are got up, or its eleventh annual exhibition would not have been so beggarly in its eral appointments. The grounds selected for stremlty of the city, beyond Grant's Hill. was not balf so well designed for such spectacle as the Crawlord County Fair Grounds Meadville, or our own Driving Park. The track is only one third of a mile in circuit, and too sharp and too narrow for any fair trial of the speed of horses. But the numbers in attendance the United States which can indulge its readers and legion. Pittsburgh has probably seen no such gala-day since the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention that convened here just one year ago. No such clouds of dust, no each tramping Governor Geary struck the key note at Philadella when he declared that Pennsylvania would never allow the Prople's Congress to be seven o'clock on Wedne day night when the toon rumbled over the Allegheny bridge, and I broked out upon the fig. breathing and smoke Capt. The streets are tolerably regular, con-sidering they were laid out in the dark; every building is discolored, every one's garments are salled; but there is a solid grandeur about the town, which suggests at once the dignity of labor, and the power of regulated and organized captud. Her mammoth rolling mills, and foundries, and factories, and machine shops, make her a vist laboratory of manufacturing industry.-and her growth is in the same ratio of progress with her prosperity, which must last as long as the Allegheny as a Monongabela flow past her. The project of consolulating Allegheny City and formingham, and the configuous towns, with Pittsburgh, under one municipal government for Il, is now under discussion, and there seems to be a preponderance of public sentiment in its favor. With such union, Pittsburgh will no longer be second to Cinchmati, Chicago and St. Louis. Phisburgh has been slow to seize all the advantages which belong to her situation and The Alleghany Railroad, from arroundings. Pittsburgh to Oil City, which approaches completion, will secure to her much of the teads and connectee of the oil regions which hitherto has found other markets and channels. The Monon gairela carries coal and iron to her gates, the Allegheny the no less valuable products of lumber, oil and sait. There will be an immense turn out from the neighboring towns, and we hope Titusville berneled down a numerous delegation. Brown's unidee of the month of September, but so low a stage of water has not been known here since the residue of the month of September, but so low a stage of water has not been known here since 1832, as I am predibly informed. The current rates of oll this week are from one to two cents less than at the same period last year. The stock of crude on hand here I find estimated at about a "ring" full of innsteal sounds, 130,000 bairels. Your readers are apt to be misled as to the quantities of oil in store here-The same lot being sold over and over again possing through a dozen hands, it may be, and a dozen sales reported, when in fact there is but one. ment in progress in the off region, the firman should formlish the public with quarterly monthly reports of this character. Buch data from authentic and unbiased sources, would be of great service to shippers, dealers, refiners, as a sale basis of operations, which, with estimates of lankage, shippents and markets at leading paints, would place the petroleum trade on a less precarious and aszardous footing than it is ent. The Engle Transportation Company's bulk oil cars are now running on the Pennsylvanis Centra) the Alleghany Valley & Western Pennsylvas a, the Northern Central and the Bal Hmure & Philadelphia and Wilmington & Baltimore oads. The construction of this rotary car which conveys oil in a cylinder between the axles far with it. It is oll-tight and fire-proof, and instead of lurning upon, the axles, it is miled over them, thus avolding friction. We were shown a of certificates from railroad officers, shippers, &c., attesting the superior excellence of this mode of transportation over all others, and Mr. C. Tiers Myers, the Superintendent of the Company, has his headquarters here. Shippers will do well to inform themselves of this valuable improvement and avail themselves of the advantages it offers them. I must bring this desultory letter to a close. I digressed from the State Pair to more interesting topics, but I should speak of the Pittsburgh Commercial, as one of the most conspicuous and influential institutious of this great and Board-hing city, and which is so intimately identified with the progress and fame of Pitteburgh. Some idea of the rost and labor of publishing a thirty-six column newspaper may be derived from the statement that its composition amounted last week to nearly two million m's, that it employs a corps of twelve editors and reporters and has about thirty compositors on its pay-roll. Its mail-book establishes the fact that it has twelve hundred post officeon its list, its circulation extending through East Ohio and West Virginia as well as Western Pennsylvania. It is one of the few dozen papers is in the luxury of specials from all parts of the world reached by telegraph lines Mr. R. R. Thompson Is the "man of business" by the establishment; the editor-in-chief is Mr. C. D. Brigham, an accomplished journalist formerly of the New York Tribune; Mr. J. H. Harper has the onerous and responsible charge of city affairs, for which no one could be better qualified, and ran statistician whose reports and tables are equally (climble and exhaustive. The Commercial is a credit to the enterprize of its managers and to the journalism of the country. To begin again and end with the Fair. Such a pell mell rush you never saw on foot, and in vehicles of every description. Going up to the gate, one saw not a few pensioners in torn and greasy United States uniform, soliciting alms, from those pusing by, turning sightless eye-balls towards the erowd, or an empty sleeve, and grinding out dolrous tunes from some wretched unmusical in stimment. Next you came on the suake and of bees, the melanchely Blamese twins, the nonkey shows, with gandy banners on the car vas, and the barsh shoutings of the fring oil howman. Showing your ticket to a Hercules of gate keeper, you are "taken in' and behold monster crowd and a pigmy spectacle, a pin and puppet show such as you might have seen on eith street, any hour of the day. Seeds, quashes, photographs, car; ets, sewing machine few sheep, a tow ten penny nalls, rakes, pickies, anti-nervous cigars, clothes-plus, candy, a swarm ess man who writes you an antograph with his dirly toes, a dinner that Odver would never have neked any more of, and Bumble would not have provided in a "work'ns," Take up a Pittsburgh expersant read the descriptive notices, the puffs hat cost twenty cents o line. One would think that the reporters had been making an inventory of stock in the stores and shops in the city. Boots und shoes, quoth the scribes. FILLOW CITIZENS: Once more to the rescue The election is only ten days hence; and seldom If ever, were more momentous issues presented for your decision. The majority of the Judge of the Supreme Court were elected before the recent war, and upon partizan, Democratic, State Rights, and secession platforms, which were free charters for robollion. The war itself was a lugitimate consequence of these principles, and in strict accordance with these State rights, do rines. When the conflict came, the Judges and the other leaders of the party which elected them stood fast by their platforms, and in so doing deserted the cause and thig of the county. The denied the power of the National Government to coerce rebols, to issue paper money, or to make it a legal tender, or to make and enforce a draft to fill up the ranks of our armies, or to punish deserters by disfranchisement; and in a hundred other ways endeavored, by State setion, to hullfy national laws; and thus during the whole war, kept up an unceasing "fire in the rear." These dangerous dogmas and State rights eresies have been overthrown and repudiated upon a hundred bloody battle-fields! In the ame of Heaven, ask us not to restore them, or to elect men who uphold and maintain them!

inque of Heaven, ask is not to restore them, or to elect men who uphold and maintain them!

Of the same grave character is the great and worshadowing indicinal question of reconstruction. This is the issue of the hour, and of the contest. Who under the Constitution has the right to make laws and regulations for States and peoply lately in rebellion? Is it the sovereign people, through their representatives in Congress for the mon who accidentally fills the Presidential chair? These important questions snawer themselves. Never were living issues more plain. You, and the other loyal people of this nation deciled them at the ballot-box only one year ago, in the election of the Fortieth Congress, and by a popular vertict four hundred thousand strong? Why has not this decree of the people luent executed, and became the exited law of the land? Only because of the people luent executed, and became the exited law of the land? Only because of the people luent executed, and became the exited law of the land? Only because of the people luent executed, and became the exited law of the land? Only because of the people luent executed, and became the exited law of the land? Only because of the profiled in the strikes down and endeavors to humilistic and degrade our most honorad and beloved patriots, statesmen and heroes. Edwin M. Stanton was a putriot, even in the Gabinet of James Buchanan, and ever since he has been toyal, haithful and true. Generals Phillp H. Shoridan and Daniel E. Sickles are patriots and heroes who have poby ear med the gratuated, affection and admination of their countrymen. The former, with his loyal legions, stood in the valley of the Shomandoali like a wall of the between us and our enemier, and saved our Statefron the foot of the hunder. The latter, in the front of battle, sted his blood and loss his limb at the eniminating battle of Gettysburg. In CONTINUED PROW FIRST PAGE.

Anne, and we believe the time has come when you should begin, and we will give you assistance. You can own herds of cuttle and horses like the Cherokees and Chiechae. You can have cornfields like the Fornas, Yanktons and Pottoward of the Cherokees and Chiechae. You see for yolivacif that the white wattomics. You see for yolivacif that the white good lead. If you are done, your homes how, it will be too late next year. This railroad will be built, and if your young men and how the party you is the last fir, you are done, will refer to the well be built, and if you young men will interfere, the Great Father, who, out of love for you, withheld his seddlers, will to loose his young men, and you will be swept away. We therefore propose to but he whole Sour Nation select their country of the Justice Party was not not proposed to the party white seen away, except such agents and traders to you hay choose. We want you to cultivate your and, hold houses and roise cattle. We propose to help you then as long as you med and write like the white. The Cheyonnes and roise cattle. We propose to help you then as long as you med and write like the whites. The Cheyonnes and all other Southern Indians will have bomes in the country below the Arkansas, and if the Sioux Indians privileges. A great many treaties have been made by people gone before, they can eajoy the same privileges. Sherman was followed by Commissioner Taylor and Senator Henderson in much the same with.

The Indians made reply to the Commusioners, that they had come to the council, as invited, to make peace; in last, so they understood it. Was it tuit to send them back camply handed, having done nothing but talk. They asked for annumition to kill game. They said they would not hart the white men; did not want to.

Byotted Tail, Swift Ben, Turkey Leg and Paw-Settler were shok camer.

Byotted Tail, Swift Bear, Turkey Leg and Pawnee Killer were spokesmen.

The Commissioners finally yielded and peace was declared between the Brule, Ogallalin and Cheyennes. Pawnee Killer left the countel in disgust before peace was made. He harried to his wigwam, painted his face a deep red, and mounting his pony gallopped away over the sand bluffs. Thus the grand council was ended.
